DEDICATION

Words alone cannot express the deep gratitude we feel towards a person whose outstanding achievements have created such a dynamic spirit in our college. As a teacher his ability and wit leave him unchallenged in the classroom. As an advisor and friend his heart, open to everyone, has made him a man noteworthy of admiration. Complete devotion to, and concern for our students have earned him our love and esteem. His presence has enriched the lives of all of us. We, the Class of 1970, are honored to dedicate our yearbook to

PROFESSOR GERARD H. SAUNDERS

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts
Massachusetts Bay Community College
57 Stanley Avenue, Watertown 02172

TELEPHONE: 926-2600

To the Class of 1970:

The two years since September of 1968 when you were beginning Freshmen have, I suspect, sped by all too quickly. Those of us on the Faculty and Staff hope that they have been fruitful and satisfying years.

This is the time both to look back nostalgically on some fond memories of friends and events, and to look ahead to as yet unfulfilled dreams and hopes. One thing is certain - you have left your mark on "old Mass Bay". I am convinced that this College has benefited from your presence here. We who have been your teachers, your counselors and, indeed, your personal friends, can but hope that we have left some small mark of our influence that you will find helpful in your future lives.

In a very real sense, you characterize your College - both of you are young and growing, both of you have unlimited promise as yet unfulfilled. We have come to have great confidence in your optimism, your imagination, and your ingenuity. We look to you to continue your affiliation with Mass Bay through your involvement as alumni who will play an increasingly influential role in determining what your College is ultimately to become.

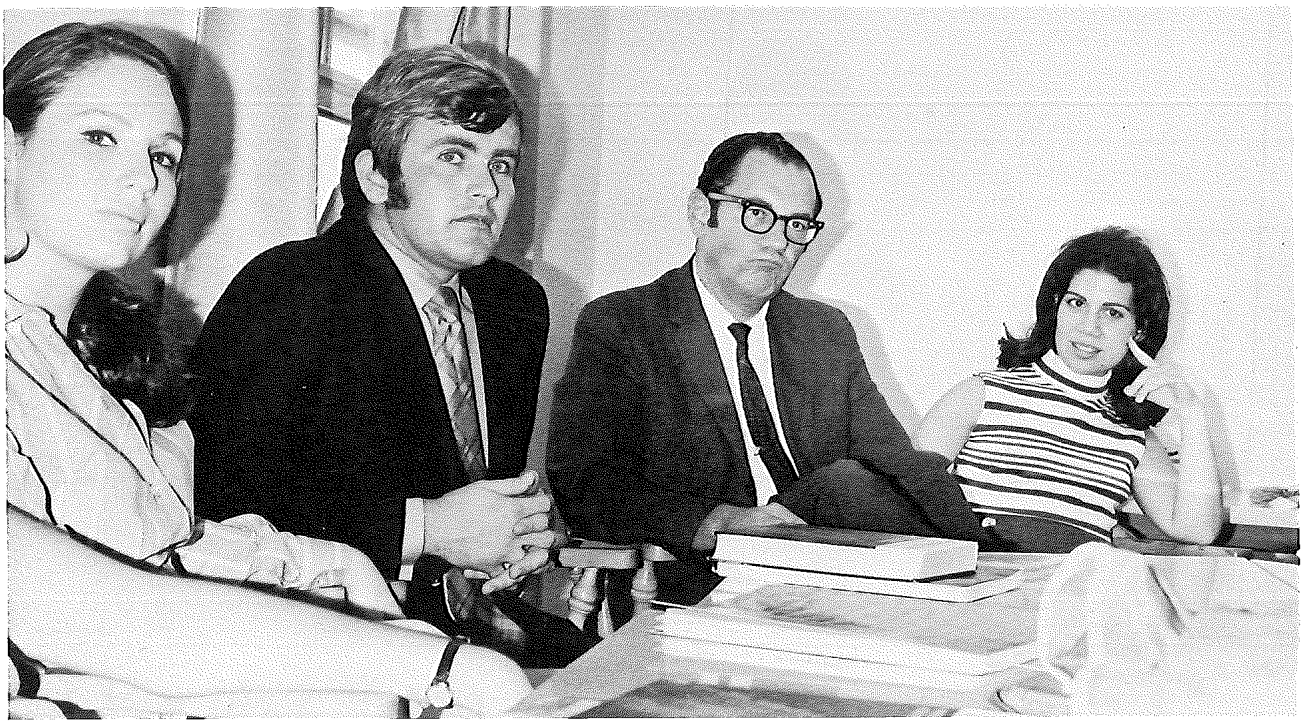

The Faculty and Staff join me in thanking you for our many pleasant hours together and in wishing you good luck and Godspeed.

a moment of life has passed behind,
the memories forever
in our mind.
we have sought out learning
and found a need to ascend.
we have laughed with the time
and cried with a friend.
somehow one feels and never forgets
that we have been
the most fortunate
yet . . .

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

During the past year, the Greenyears staff has worked diligently to produce a yearbook in which we have tried to capture and record the meaningful activities and events that have occurred at our college. As you look over these pages, it is our hope that you will be reminded of the education you have acquired, the joys and sorrows of college life, and the friendships you have made.

As the 1970 edition of Greenyears goes to print, I wish to express my sincere thanks to Mr. Joe Donovan, our publisher's representative from William J. Keller, Inc., for his assistance; to Warren Kaye Vantine Studios for their fine photography and portrait work; and to our faculty, administration, and students for their cooperation. A very warm and appreciative thanks goes to Professor Sumner M. White, our faculty advisor, whose guidance, assistance, and encouragement always will be remembered.

My deepest gratitude goes to a dedicated group of classmates who have devoted their talents and many long hours creating this yearbook: to Janet Silverstein, Assistant Editor; Marilyn Gove, Literary Editor; Joyce Ricupero, Layout Editor; Marcia Quinlan, Business Editor; Kathy Agresti, Photography Editor; Debbie Holford, Art Editor; and to Mary Ann Doherty, Rosalyn Gove, Shirley Hibino, Joyce Ricercato, and Linda Villany.

I hope this yearbook will provide you with fond memories and much happiness in the future.

Nancy Elkin, Editor-in-Chief
