GREEN YEARS

MASSACHUSETTS BAY COMMUNITY COLLEGE

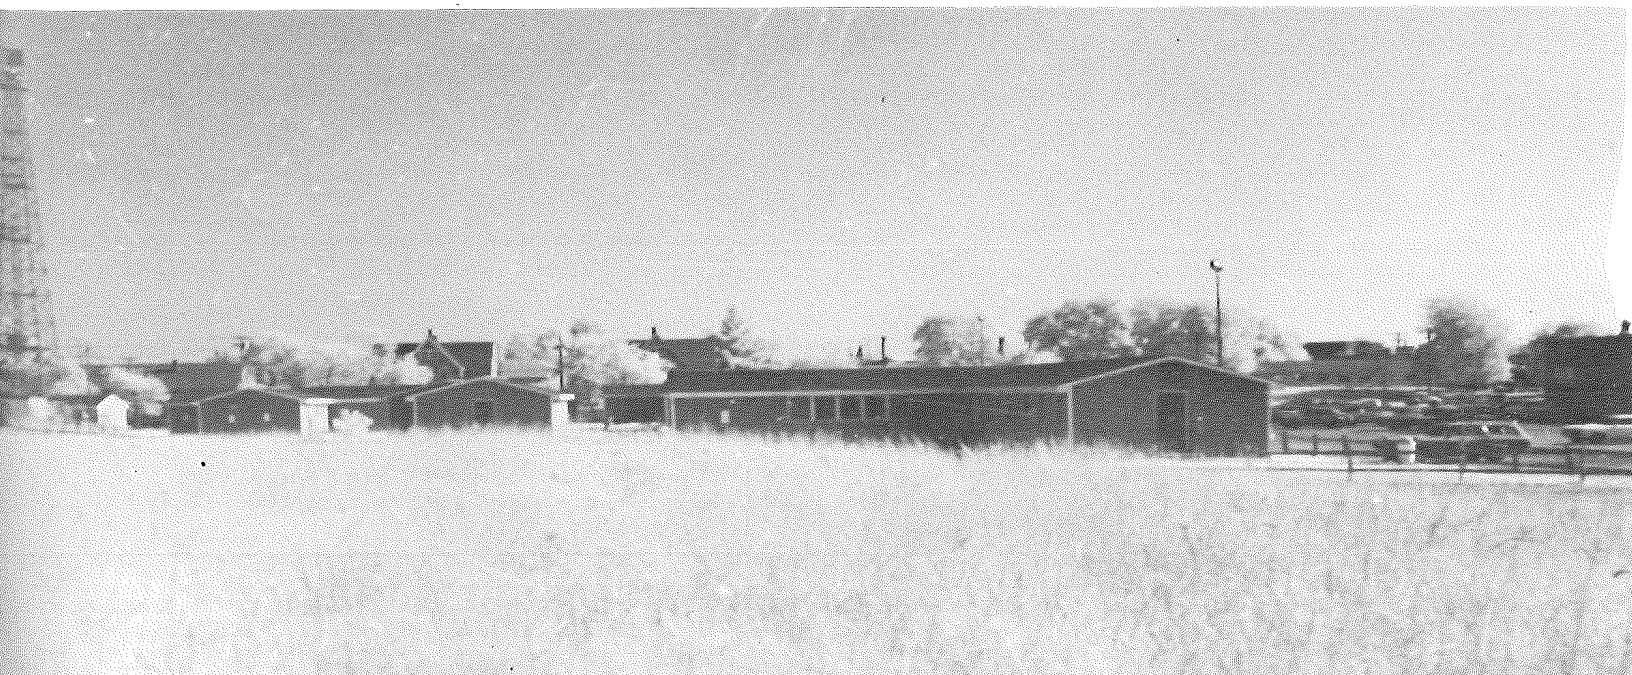

Founded in 1961, Massachusetts Bay Community College was the fourth community college established by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for the purpose of providing an inexpensive, diversified education for interested individuals. Classes were first held at 27 Garrison Street in Boston with a total enrollment of 419 students and 25 staff members.

In September of 1965, because of increased enrollment, one-half the student body attended classes at Watertown High School while awaiting the renovation of what is now known as "Mass Bay." Today the school is located on the Gore Campus, which includes a former Raytheon office building and a group of relocatable classrooms. The enrollment includes 1400 day students and 1700 evening students.

Accreditation of Massachusetts Bay Community College by the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools came in December of 1967. Membership is also maintained in the American Association of Junior Colleges.

After a ten year search for a permanent campus, the Legislature of Massachusetts, this past October, approved the purchase of Elizabeth Seton High School in Wellesley. It took a great deal of hard work by students, faculty, staff, and administration to make this possible; but it was indeed worthwhile.

Today and in the days to come Massachusetts Bay Community College is and will be an institution fulfilling the many needs of the community it serves.

FRANCIS W. SARGENT
GOVERNOR

THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
STATE HOUSE, BOSTON 02133

June 8, 1972

TO THE MASSACHUSETTS BAY COMMUNITY COLLEGE, CLASS OF 1972

It is a pleasure for me to extend the greetings of the Commonwealth, as well as my own, to the Massachusetts Bay Community College, Class of 1972.

Congratulations, and my best wishes for your continued success.

Sincerely,

Francis Sargent

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts
Massachusetts Bay Community College
57 Stanley Avenue, Watertown 02172

TELEPHONE: 926-2600

To the Class of 1972:

You are the tenth class to graduate from this College. Ten years may seem a long time to you, but as measured in terms of the longevity of most colleges, it is short indeed. And yet, everything this College is and has achieved has been accomplished in that ten-year span, thanks to its students, faculty and staff. To a significant extent, these last ten years will influence what the College is to become in its infinite future.

Perhaps the event in which we were all involved that is best remembered is the "Seton Saga". As I write this, I do not know the final outcome of that campaign to acquire our new campus site. As you read this, you will know what the outcome was. Regardless of the outcome, you showed the mettle of Mass Bay students to rise to the occasion once again.

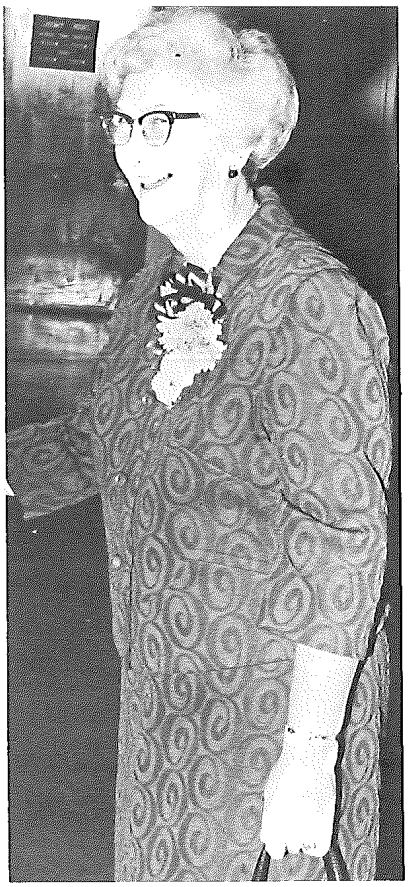

Your two years with us were short, but we hope profitable and pleasant. It is my hope that you will continue your association with your "Alma Mater" through its alumni association.

We who remain here have tried very hard to provide you with the best kind of education possible. We can only hope that we have succeeded. You go on now to bigger and more important careers. On behalf of the faculty and staff, I wish you good luck and Godspeed.

John F. McKenzie
President

EDITH M MC KENZIE

DEDICATION

"Could I see you for a few minutes after class?" Although she hears this continually, her concern and understanding of students has never allowed her to say no. Her willingness to give time and energy to our problems is yet another reflection of her warmth and friendliness which never seem to diminish.

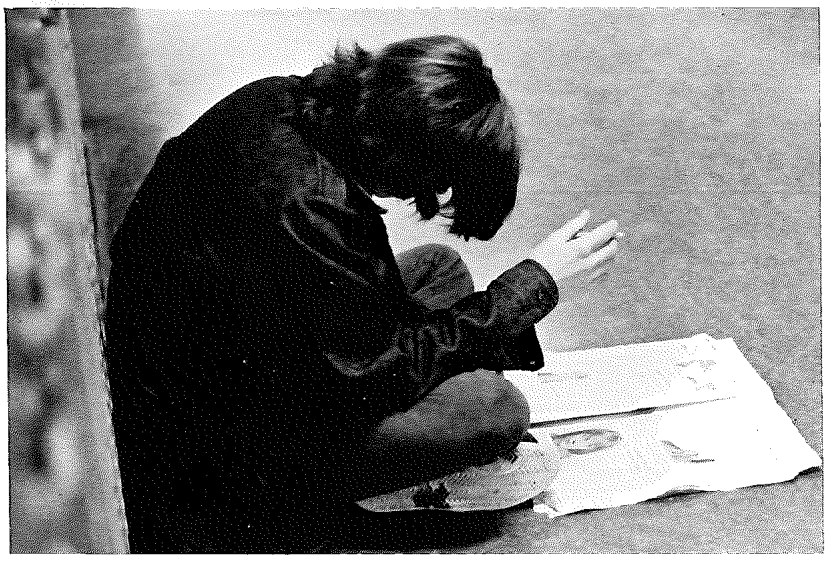

She has been in education all her life. Before coming to Massachusetts Bay Community College in 1968, she was a Dean at Burdett College in Boston for 18 years. She has also taught at the University of New Hampshire and Westbrook Junior College.

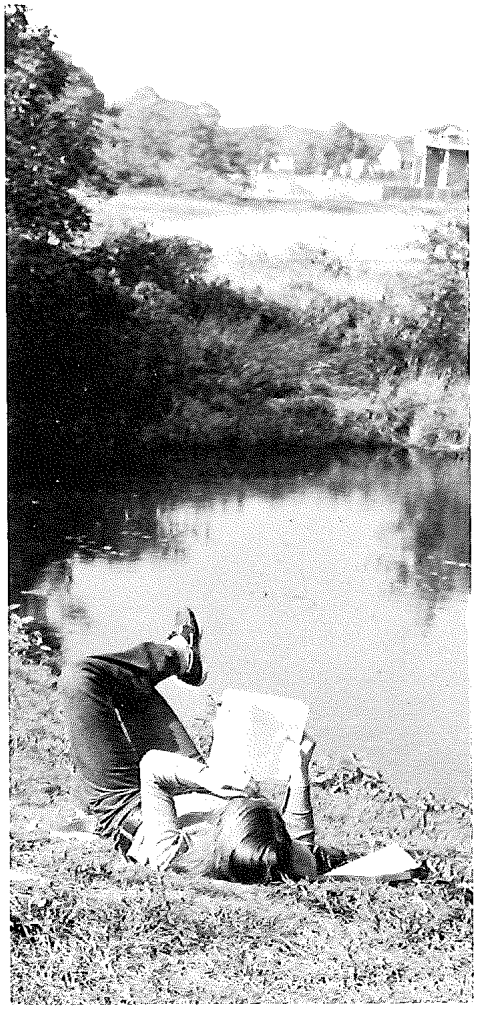

We, the Graduating Class of 1972, are proud to dedicate this edition of "Greenyears" to a very devoted person and good friend —

EDITH M. MC KENZIE

"Lookin' for a Home; Fightin' for a Home"

Mass. Bay has been looking for a permanent home ever since the first students registered in 1961. Site committees have searched for locations; architects have planned buildings; but every time our hopes were frustrated. In the spring of 1971, the Elizabeth Seton School on one hundred and twenty-five acres in Wellesley became available; the Board of Regional Community Colleges agree; terms for purchase met general approval — only legislative passage of the Governor's budget was needed before final negotiations could begin. But in September, word went out that Mass. Bay was going to lose again.

When President McKenzie reported that the House would reject the budget item, our faculty went into action. Their "Save Seton" committee alerted the Student Council; the Council passed the word to the student body; and the entire college responded like the Minute Men of 1775.

Faculty and students met in strategy sessions. They organized a lobbying campaign and assigned jobs to everyone. Some spent day after day in the State House telling the Mass. Bay story to members of the Great and General Court. Some compiled lists of legislators by towns, complete with addresses and phone numbers. Some faculty members covered classes for their colleagues who were at the State House so that the first business of the College went on "as usual". Everyone telephoned and wrote his state senator and representatives to explain their needs. Others sent accounts of the effort to the newspapers, the radio stations, the television studios; President McKenzie appeared on Louis Lyons' program. And so the public learned about the college whose students were working within the "System" for something they believed in. At the Open House, parents joined the cause and went home to call their legislators. Senators Brooke and Kennedy received appeals for help. One sunny Saturday faculty and students invaded the Needham dump to distribute statements of the Mass. Bay story.

One by one the State House solons changed their minds because they learned the truth about Mass. Bay. In the final drive, students, faculty, President McKenzie, members of the Board of Regional Community Colleges, and of the Board of Higher Education went as a group to plead our cause with influential legislators. The students collected nearly two thousand signatures on a petition, which President McKenzie submitted to the Lt. Governor. Governor Sargent's Office lent his support to our cause.

The Senate approved the budget item, and Mass. Bayers crossed their fingers while a legislative conference committee of the two houses considered what to do. Our effort had been made; we could only hope. The Conference Committee approved the funds. Finally, on October 20 the Capital Outlay Bill — now containing the Mass. Bay appropriation for Seton — was debated on the floor of the House. Over 500 students and faculty filled the gallery. Finally the vote was taken — 109 to 109, we gasped. After a recess and some persuasion, the debate continued; final vote was 138 to 79. We had won our battle. Negotiations proceeded. The Seton site was ours. Mass. Bay Community College had found and won a home.

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender to be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. ~ Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. ~ Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. ~ Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. ~ Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nuture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. ~You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. ~ Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. ~ With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy. ~

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

This edition of Greenyears presents the most interesting and amusing events of the school year. The Yearbook Staff has captured the exciting moments and put them altogether in the best yearbook ever. We have attempted to show what the students experienced and enjoyed. I feel we have shown these moments from many aspects.

I am grateful to everyone who worked on the yearbook. Our 8 a.m. sessions on Monday mornings were our "think sessions," and many long afternoons and holidays were spent putting it all together.

It has been rewarding for me to work with dedicated students and faculty and to see positive results. This yearbook has been a real team effort: my thanks to the team!
